

ABA
ART
LAB

PRODUCT DESIGN INTERN

Leonardo / Erasmus program in Palma de Mallorca

TASKS

- briefing comprehension
- sketching models, proposing finished products
- 3D rendering of the products
- supervision of prototyping at ateliers

BENEFITS

- six to nine month training and work experience program with a broad scope that will teach you about many elements of working in the art and design industry through a mediterranean lifestyle
- expanding your skills and expanding your portfolio
- work with artists on site-specific projects

REQUIRED PROFILE

- basic knowledge of working with materials and technology
- working knowledge of 3D and visualizations software
- good knowledge in preparing presentable maquettes and technical drawings
- adaptability and ability to learn new techniques
- ability to work well individually and as part of a team
- good time management
- is in the process of attaining a bachelor degree in product or industrial design
- basic knowledge of Spanish / willingness to learn

HOW TO APPLY

Please prepare a single combined .pdf and send it via email to info@abaart.com.

The document must contain your cover letter, your resume and your portfolio of your previous relevant work.

<http://abaart.com/internships/>