A citizens and European Young Leaders meeting

Understanding your fears and expectations

Friday 13 May from 16.00 to 18.00 @ University of Zagreb

Because citizens are the first to feel the shock of geopolitics and to deal with the realities of climate change, we want to hear from you what your fears and expectations are.

Have your say, be listened to and exchange views with some of Europe's leading young talents:

- What are your reflections on what governments and institutions should do to protect you? Where are they falling short?
- What are your fears?
- In the Ukraine crisis, do you understand why what seems like inaction from the West is taking place?
- How have climate measures addressed your concerns and living conditions?
- And most importantly, what can be done to make feel you safer locally?

Organised by the European Young Leaders programme of Friends of Europe, in partnership with the University of Zagreb and National Foundation for Civil Society Development, join 40+ young leaders including Benedetta Berti, Ted senior Fellow, Head of Policy Planning at the NATO Secretary General Office; Jesse Klaver, Leader of the Green Dutch Party; Alexandra Dariescu, Award-Winning Concert Pianist; Benjamina Karić, Mayor of Sarajevo; Fadi Quran, Campaign Director at Avaaz; Jasmina Cibic, Artist and filmmaker; Justas Janauskas, Co-Founder of Vinted; Matthew Caruana Galizia, Investigative Journalist; Tamara Srzentić, Montenegro Minister for Public Administration, Digital Society and Media; Andrea Fernández Benítez, Secretary of Equality for the Spanish Socialist Workers' Party (PSOE).
