WORKSHOPS

COLORINA: POISON IVY & WILLIAM HENRY PERKIN – NATURAL vs. SYNTHETIC DYES

April 9, 2024, at 12:30 p.m

Organized by the Croatian Dye Association and the Faculty of Textile Technology at the University of Zagreb.

Asst. prof. Iva BRLEK, Ph.D.; Luka SAVIĆ, mag. ing. techn. text. University of Zagreb, Faculty of Textile Technology

The workshop will present the history and properties of natural and synthetic dyes. Through the interaction of two colorful characters, visitors will learn everything about the very beginning of the use of natural dyes, their stagnation due to the invention of the first synthetic dye Mauvein (which was accidentally discovered by the scientist William Henry Perkin in 1856) and about the return of natural dyes in the present day.
